Press Despatch Only News Received at Foreign Office.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun and New York Heasts. Cappright, 1926, by The Sun and New York Heasts.

PARIS, Aug. 11 .- The text of President Wilson's note regarding Russia is awaited by the French Foreign Office with great impatience. The Government is without information, save that contained in press despatches, but hope is already abandoned in France of getting America to engage actively in the pres-ent molec. The French Government is unable as yet to give any explanation of the des-spatch from the French Embassy in Washington Monday on the alleged statement to the American newspapers in which the Washington Government was said to have praised the Bolsheviki. Officials here are inclined to believe that the French Embassy in Washington was victimized in some way, possibly by a Bolshevist trickater.

Despatches received by The New York Heraid of Paris brought the first news the French Government received that the information contained in the Embassy despatch was not correct and giving the real purport of President

Wilson's note.

The President's opposition to the Soviet regime agrees with the French policy, and to this extent the President's declaration gives great satisfac-

Father Vaughan added that none of the messages were answered, as the Archbishop is still without definite olans for the future

None present at the Nazareth House Convent, where Archbishop Mannix and Father Vaughan are residing, would discuss reports published in London that the Archbishop was seeking legal advice to determine his chances in a suit against the Government. Authorities on the subject, however, told the corre-spondent that from a purely legal viewpoint it was believed that Archbishop Mannix could have little hope of win-ning. The reason given for this opinion was that the Government enjoys wide powers under the defence of the realm act, adopted during the war. Archbishop Mannix's habit of sud
